Dear Sir,

In response to your Office Action Summary and your letter dated July 7th, 2003 responding to communication filed on December 23, 2002 please note the following:

I am in agreement with your comments with regards to the Claims 1-4, and I request the following changes to the claims, as follows:

Claims 1-4 (canceled)

Claim 5 (original) a portable cordless charger.

Claim 6 (original) a interchangeable battery system.

Claim 7 (original) a battery system without memory, that can be left in the charger constantly without a negative effect, means that the battery has a long lasting life.

Claim 8 (original) a demountable cordless hairdryer wherein a rechargeable battery provides electricity thus eliminating electrical cord.

Claim 9 (original) a manual cordless hairdryer wherein a cordless charger charges the battery maintaining the user from a distance of any personal injury and damage from the electricity, and the user is not limited to a confined area.
